TEXAS.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 9.-Not more than one-third of the vote of the state has been reported, but enough is known to predict the success of Culberson (Dem.), for governor by about 40,000 plurality. He runs ten to fifteen thousand behind the balance of the state ticket. The Democrats certainly elect congressmen in eight of the thirteen districts, namely:
First, Hutcheson; Second, Cooper;
Third, Yoakum; Fourth, Cuiberson;
Fifth, Haller, Night, Savers; Tenth,

Third, Yoakum; Fourth, Culberson; Fifth, Balley; Ninth, Sayers; Tenth, Crowley; Eleventh, Crain.

In the twelfth Noonan (Rep.), has from 1,500 to 2,000 plurality. In the Thirteenth, Gilliland (Rep.), is probably elected. He is leading by nearly 1,000 votes, and the Democratic strongholds have been mostly heard from. In the Sixth district the official count will be necessary to determine between Abbot (Dem.), and Kearby (Pop.). The same is true of Pendleton (Dem.), and Barber (Pop.), in the Seventh, and Bell (Dem.), and Jenkins (Pop.), in the Eighth.

lance as the "Sea-Going Admiral."
He leaves behind him a career of distinction, full of hard fighting and severe service, and without a biemish. His total active service amounts to forty-eight years and five months and twenty-five years and eight months of that service were spent at sea. Even during the seven years he has held the rank of rear-admiral, in a time when few admirals make more than one cruise under their own pennant, he has been at sea about four and a half years.

Admiral Gherardi was born in Louisiana sixty-two years ago and was apprenticed to the naval service from Massachusetts June 29, 1846, as a metahipman. He became a passed midshipman in 1823, a master in 1855, and was a lieutenant contest to the lacaster, attached to the Pacific squdron when the war broke out. The year 1972 saw him a lieutenant commander, blockading South Atlantic ports, notwithstanding his southern birth. From the engagement at Fort Macon, on the Mehican; commanded the Chocura on the West Gulf blockade; the Port Royal in the same service in the battle of Mobile and finally commanded the Fequot on the North Atlantic blockade at the close of hostilities. He was commissioned as commander in 1986 and capital in 1873, mean-while seeing service in commands on the Pacific and North Atlantic.

One particularly gallant action recorded of him is pursuing in a small tug and securing the destruction of a confederate ram which had succeeded in running a blockade on the Masissippi.

Admiral Gherard became a commodore in 1884 and an admiral of 1887. Two years later he took command of the North Atlantic station. In 1872 he cruised from San Francisco around to Hampton Roads to take part in the great naval review in 1833, which was conducted under his command at the New York navy yard, where he retires.

COOK GANG AGAIN.

Once More They Leave a Bloody Trail Behind Them. Coffeyville, Kan., Nov. 9.-Two of the Cook gang plundered the town of Lenapah, I. T., and left a bloody trail behind them this afternoon. They entered the town in the character of bold bandits without any attempt of concalment and terrorized the citizens until they had carried out their plan of until they had carried out their plan of robbery. E. E. Melton, a brave young man who attempted to stop them with his gun when they were riding away, was shot and instantly killed. Another man, whose name cannot be learned to-night, is reported to have been seriously wounded. Both of the victims were with a small force of citizens who hastly armed themselves and attempted to prevent the escape of the bandits.

The robbers were mounted on fast horses and were heavily armed. Some of the citizens claim to have recognized them as Cherckee Bill and Jim French, well known as lieutenants of Bill Cook, the leader of the gang. The robbers held up the proprietors of two small stores and looted both places. They also robbed the postoffice. John Shuffeldt, the proprietor of one store, lost $100 in money and a gold watch.

Mr. Shuffeldt proclaimed his loss to the town before the robbers had finited their work and the band of citi. the town before the robbers had fin-ished their work, and the band of citi-zens were almost between them and their horses when the robbers were ready to mount. An effort was made to stop them, but they were on horse-back with drawn pistols and were fly-ing away before their would-be captors ould make a concentrated move A report says the bandits are headed for Perryville, which is only fifteen miles from Lenapah. That place is the scene of many tragic robberies and the po-lice with volunteers are prepared to meet them in the same way they met the Daltons two years ago, when al-

nost the entire band was wiped out. LONDON WOOL SALES.
